

PEAK PRECISION NUTRITION

EndurO₂ LPT™

PURE SALIDROSIDE

EndurO₂ LPT™ is a unique, highly bioavailable, chewable liposomal tablet (LIPOTAB™ LPT™) using LANDKIND® Pure Salidroside, which is a phytochemical compound found in Rhodiola rosea root. Salidroside is traditionally known for enhancing stress resistance and performance. LANDKIND is sustainably produced through precision fermentation to avoid environmental harm. This bioactive compound supports muscle health, energy metabolism, stress adaptation, and vascular function while offering antioxidant and anti-inflammatory benefits. Clinical studies show it improves exercise performance, oxygen uptake, mood, and muscle recovery by activating key energy pathways, modulating cortisol, and enhancing blood flow. EndurO₂ combines proven health benefits with eco-friendly production, making it a modern solution for physical and mental performance.[†]

SUPPORT ENERGY METABOLISM[†]

Activates AMPK, boosts mitochondrial function, and increases energy production for sustained performance and recovery.

IMPROVE VASCULAR FUNCTION[†]

Enhances blood flow, promoting oxygen delivery, and supports endothelial health through vasodilation and angiogenesis.

SUPPORT MUSCLE HEALTH[†]

Reduces muscle damage and fatigue, enhances recovery, and provides antioxidant protection against oxidative stress.

Support Energy Metabolism[†]

Improve Vascular Function[†]

Support Muscle Health[†]
